

Morning News Script

0730 hrs

24th May 2024

<><><><><>

The Government has identified around 6.8 lakh mobile connections as fake and invalid. These connections are suspected to have been obtained using invalid, non-existent, fake Proof of Identity and KYC documents. The Department of Telecommunications has directed the Telecommunications Service Providers to carry out immediate re-verification of these identified mobile numbers. The Service Providers are mandated to re-verify the flagged connections within 60 days. The department added that failure to complete re-verification will result in the disconnection of the concerned mobile numbers.

<><><><><>

The Secretary for Information and Broadcasting Sanjay Jaju yesterday said that the national centre of excellence to train the youth on animation and visual effects is on the anvil. Speaking to the media in Chennai, he said that the three lakh crore worth industry in film production needs skills in various facets of modern techniques. He said that the centre of excellence would cater to the requirements coming from the Industry. The Secretary also held discussions with the media heads of Information and Broadcasting and encouraged them to prepare a roadmap to take forward the objectives of the Ministry. The Secretary was on a one-day tour to Chennai.

<><><><><>

Central Nagaland Women's Association and Central Nagaland Students' Association held a felicitation programme for UPSC achievers Tolino Chishi (All India Rank 431) and Imsurenla Longkumer (All India Rank 774). Addressing the programme as special guest at Dimapur yesterday, Advisor ,Food and Civil Services K.T.Sukhalu congratulated the two achievers and encouraged them to be sincere and honest in their line of work. He also encouraged the young people to work with determination and commitment, saying that nothing can stop for those who want to excel. The Advisor also mentioned that the state government is very concern for the Naga youth, as the state is going through a serious employment problem, adding that not all qualified unemployed can be accommodated in the government sector. To this, he said, that the youth can be either accommodate in private sector or good investment MNC, but with the ongoing political issue, no big companies are ready to invest in Nagaland. Meanwhile, Tolino Chishi and Imsurenla Longkumer shared their experiences and journey in cracking the UPSC examinations.

The International Olympic Committee (IOC) has announced the launch of 'Let's Move India', an initiative to inspire people to celebrate the athletes participating in the upcoming Olympic Games in Paris. The move invites people from across the country to join the movement through a digital challenge on social media. According to IOC, young people can take part in a series of regional school initiatives to coincide with Olympic Day on June 23rd.

The felicitation programme for Governor's awards of the Toppers, Rank Holders, Achievers in MILs & Skill subjects in various categories of HSLC and HSSLC Examinations 2024 will be held 12th of June at Dr. Imkongliba Ao Hall, Raj Bhavan, Kohima. Informing this, the Nagaland Board School Education has invited all Toppers, Rank Holders and Achievers of Governor's Awards to attend the programme. The Heads of Institutions of the Toppers and Rank Holders are also invited to attend the function. However, parents are not invited this time, due to space constraints. The NBSE therefore asked the institution Heads to inform the Toppers, Rank Holders and Achievers who had passed out from their schools to attend the programme positively. The NBSE also informed that , the confirmed lists from the school should be mailed to nagaboard@gmail.com on or before 7th June by 3:00 P.M.for onward submission to Governor's Secretariat. Further, all the invitees have been requested to report to the venue at 10:30 A.M. and be seated by 10:45 AM, while students are advised to come in their school uniform.

North East Centre for Technology Application and Research (NECTAR), Department of Science & Technology will be imparting "Drone Pilot Training for Rural Women" to 10 qualified women from North East region free of cost. The Directorate of Science & Technology Nagaland informed that the training will be conducted tentatively during 2nd week of June at Remote Pilot Training Organisation, Boko Guwahati. The Directorate said the female applicants should be an indigenous inhabitant and in the age group of 18 to 65 year. She should also have an education qualification of class 10th pass. Applications can be submitted to the Director, Science & Technology, Nagaland below Civil Secretariat, Kohima, 797004. While, the last date of submission of application with details, contact number, e-mail address and address for correspondence is 29th of May.

<><><><><>