

Evening News Script

1920 hrs of

7th June, 2024.

:: THE HEADLINES ::

- Senior BJP Leader Narendra Modi to take oath as Prime Minister for 3rd time on Sunday.
- Recently elected Lok Sabha member S. Supongmeren Jamir left for Delhi to attend Parliament.
- Governor of Nagaland appeals Eastern Nagaland People Organization and citizens of Eastern Nagaland to participate in upcoming Urban Local Body elections.
- Chief Secretary of Nagaland chairs emergency meeting to discussed environmental hazard caused by poor and improper disposal of wastes in Doyang dam reservoir.

||<><><>||

Senior BJP leader Narendra Modi will take oath as the Prime Minister for the third time on Sunday. The oath taking ceremony will be held at 6.00 PM in Rashtrapati Bhawan. Union Minister Pralhad Joshi informed this during the NDA Parliamentary Party meeting in New Delhi today. President Droupadi Murmu will administer the oath to Narendra Modi and his new cabinet.

||<><><>||

NDA Parliamentary Party has unanimously elected Narendra Modi as its leader. During the NDA Parliamentary party meeting in New Delhi, Senior BJP Leader and Union Minister, Rajnath Singh moved a proposal to elect Modi as NDA leader and it was supported by the leaders of all NDA constituents. Modi has also been elected as the leader of BJP in Lok Sabha, and BJP parliamentary party. Proposing the name of Modi, Rajnath Singh said that he is the most suitable person for this post. He said, that this alliance is not a compulsion but it is our commitment. Supporting the proposal, Union Home Minister Amit Shah said, this is not only the wish of leaders sitting in the NDA Parliamentary Party meeting but of 140 crore people of this country. Senior BJP leader and Union Minister Nitin Gadkari said, Prime Minister Modi has worked with full dedication to ensure that the country is prosperous and becomes a superpower. Speaking on the occasion, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said, NDA is not a group of parties that have come together for power but it is an alliance committed to work with the spirit of nation first.

||<><><>||

Indian National Congress candidate, S. Supongmeren Jamir, who won the lone Lok Sabha seat from Nagaland, asserted that his victory reflects the people's desire for change. Speaking to the media at Dimapur airport en route to Delhi, Jamir emphasized the public's confidence in the Congress party and pledged to work towards justice for the populace. He affirmed his commitment to addressing the critical issue of educated unemployment and advancing developmental initiatives in the state. Expressing gratitude to the voters, Jamir said the electorate had chosen democracy by supporting the Congress, rejecting an oppositionless government incapable of safeguarding their rights. He warned against the state descending into violence and disruption, as seen in neighboring Assam and Manipur. Addressing internal party dynamics, Jamir dismissed concerns about discord within the Nagaland Pradesh Congress Committee, affirming unity among its members. Accompanied by senior officials from the Pradesh Congress Committee, Jamir is headed to Delhi to attend Parliament and the extended Congress Working Committee meeting scheduled tomorrow.

||<><><>||

Governor of Nagaland, La Ganesan has appeal the Eastern Nagaland People Organization (ENPO) and the citizens of Eastern Nagaland to participate in the upcoming Urban Local Body (ULB) elections scheduled on 26th June. While, acknowledging the concerns raised by ENPO, the Governor said it is imperative to address the essence of democratic participation. He emphasized that voting in any election is not merely a right but a significant opportunity that ensures the representation of the people's voice in governance and the sustenance of democratic principles. The Governor also reassure the ENPO and people of Eastern Nagaland that the concerns related to the creation of Frontier Nagaland Territory are being diligently addressed by the Central Government. He said, constructive dialogue and continued participation in the democratic process should be encouraged by all the concerned stakeholders. The Governor called on ENPO and people of Eastern Nagaland to exercise their constitutional right and strengthen the democratic fabric of the state.

||<><><>||

Chief Secretary of Nagaland, J Alam today chaired an emergency meeting in Kohima discuss the environmental hazard caused by poor and improper disposal of wastes in the upstream of Doyang dam reservoir in Wokha district. Alam emphasized the urgency to examine and undertake specific prevention and mitigation measures to clear the debris and solid waste collected in the upstream of the Doyang river bed. He directed the district administration and concerned departments to find sustainable ways and carry out the mission in close coordination. The Chief Secretary also directed Deputy Commissioner of Wokha to convene a meeting with stakeholders and initiate a mission mode of cleaning the debris at Doyang dam within a week and maintain proper documentation records of the entire process.

||<><><>||

Dimapur District Congress Committee today distributed tickets to candidates for the upcoming Urban Local Body election. Eight candidates were given tickets at a ceremony held at Congress Bhavan in Dimapur. General Secretary of Nagaland Pradesh Congress Committee in charge of Dimapur, L Chuba urged the candidates to serve as exemplary representatives of the party. He emphasized the importance of their actions in building a comprehensive ecosystem of work and dedication to public service.

||<><><>||

Nagaland Police asserted that it has always responded to the call of duty in maintenance of law and order and public peace in the State. A press release from the Nagaland Police stated that it also tackled left wing extremism outside the State or election duty across the country, performing challenging task to the extent of risking their lives in the call of duty. Accordingly, in the recently concluded Parliamentary Election, Nagaland Armed Police (India Reserve) Coys were deployed for election related duty in all the seven phases. During the call of duty, on 23 May, Nagaland Police Constable, Yangtsase Sangtam, after performing Prime Minister's Election rally duty in Patiala, Punjab had a tragic accidental fall from a building and succumbed to his injuries. The release informed that, acknowledging the supreme sacrifice of Yangtsase Sangtam and as per the Election Commission of India guidelines for ex-gratia payment, an amount of 15 lakh rupees was credited to the account of the wife of the Late Constable. It added that, while loss of life cannot be compensated in terms of money, Nagaland Police endeavour to do whatever is required to bring succor to the families of its deceased personnel.

||<><><>||

State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD) today held an awareness program on Localization of Sustainable Development Goals for Village Development Board Secretaries in Wokha. Principal of Extension Training Centre, SIRD, Suohienuo Keyho emphasized the vital role of Rural Development Department in tackling challenges like poverty, food security, health, education, and sanitation. She said that India with second largest population in the world, the state and local government are crucial towards the progress of the country, and the Department of Rural Development plays a pivotal role in implementing programme and schemes as it emphasis on poverty reduction, food security health for all and Providing quality Education and access to water and sanitation implementation. Senior Lecturer, Dr. C. Nyekha, spoke on the subjects of poverty free and livelihood enhanced village, Healthy village with adequate water, Independent Infrastructure and Good Governance.

||<><><>||