As per power vested upon the Nagaland Police under the Nagaland Liquor Total Prohibition Act, NLTP 1989, a state-wide surprise checking on all suspected place selling or storing illegal liquor has led to seizure of over 9 thousand 5 hundred bottles of liquor. The surprise checking was conducted on September 21 by co-ordinated actions of all District Executive Force, DEFs, Nagaland Armed Police and Indian Reserve Battalions of the State Police Department. In a release, the police said that in the two hour drive against illegal liquor, a total number of 9 thousand 5 hundred and 83 bottles of liquor of various brands were seized. Additionally, 28 cases were registered in various police stations in the State along with 30 persons arrested under Section 44€ of the NLTP Act. Asserting to endeavor full implementation of NLTP Act, the Nagaland Police said that actions against selling and storing of illegal liquor would continue in future too. In this, the Police Department sought the participation of all citizens in checking flow and sale of liquor by giving information to the concerned SPs of the respective jurisdiction or to the Police headquarters about any related illegal activity taking place.

President Droupadi Murmu has stressed that Audit needs to keep up with technological evolution in order to be able to perform its oversight functions effectively.
