

Morning News Script

0730 hrs

14th November 2025

||<><><>||

Children's Day is being celebrated across the state today, marking the birth anniversary of India's first Prime Minister, Jawaharlal Nehru. Fondly called Chacha Nehru, he is remembered for his deep affection for children and his belief in the transformative power of education. The day, observed as Bal Diwas, underscores the importance of nurturing young minds and promoting child welfare and education. Schools across the state organised various cultural programmes and activities to celebrate the occasion. Extending his greetings, Chief Minister Neiphiu Rio wished every child joy, growth, and limitless opportunities. In a message, he said children are the hope of tomorrow-brimming with curiosity, imagination, and potential and expressed hope that they continue to dream boldly, learn freely, and grow into their fullest selves. Marking the occasion, Akashvani Kohima is broadcasting a special live programme featuring performances by school children from 8:40 AM to 9:30 AM on FM Tragopan.

||<><><>||

Union Tourism and Culture minister Gajendra Singh Sekhawat will inaugurate the 13th edition of the International Tourism Mart ,ITM for the North Eastern Region in Gangtok today. Chief Minister of host state Sikkim Prem Singh Tamang, Chief Minister of Arunachal Pradesh Pema Khandu and the Tourism ministers of North Eastern states will also attend the program. The International Tourism Mart is an annual flagship event of the Ministry of Tourism, designed to showcase the tourism potential of the North Eastern Region to both domestic and international audiences.

||<><><>||

Women Resource Development and Horticulture Minister Salhoutuonuo Kruse yesterday inaugurated the Midland Community Hall-cum-Car Parking Facility at Midland, Kohima. The project was implemented through the Kohima Smart City Development Ltd. (KSCDL) under the Smart City Mission of the Ministry of Housing and Urban Affairs. Speaking at the inaugural programme, Minister Kruse said the facility reflects the government's commitment to improving quality of life and fostering community spirit. She expressed hope that the facility will serve as a place for people to come together, celebrate, and strengthen the spirit of community. She thanked the land donors, KSCDL, and all contributors, expressing hope that the hall will become a hub for community activities, promoting unity and collaboration. An amount of 2.91 crore rupees was sanctioned for the project, which includes civil works, site development, electrification, water supply and sanitary fittings, and a rainwater reservoir.

||<><><>||

The first-ever Nagaland Cooperative Conclave 2025 will be held from November 18 to 20 in Kohima under the theme "Cooperatives – A Catalyst for Economic Transformation." Organized in conjunction with the International Year of Cooperatives 2025, the conclave aims to engage and empower cooperative societies and stakeholders across the state. we have a report:

V/B : The three-day event will feature exhibitions and sales showcasing a variety of local products, including fruits and vegetables, pulses, weaving and handicrafts, processed foods, and traditional pottery. The conclave will also host seminars, panel discussions, and Business to Business sessions to promote knowledge sharing, networking, and collaboration among cooperative societies, entrepreneurs, and policymakers. Supported by NABARD and in partnership with the Nagaland State Rural Livelihood Mission, with DIPR and Akashvani Kohima as media partners, the event underscores the vital role of cooperatives in driving economic growth and sustainable livelihoods in Nagaland.

||<><><>||

Chief Minister Neiphiu Rio and Rajya Sabha MP S. Phangnon Konyak have extended warm greetings to the Sumi community on the occasion of Ahuna. In his message, Chief Minister Rio expressed hope that the festival of thanksgiving would remind everyone to express gratitude for the harvest, renew the spirit of unity, and strengthen the bonds of togetherness. He wished all peace, prosperity, and harmony. Extending her greetings, MP Phangnon Konyak said that Ahuna is a reminder of the deep bond people share with the land and with one another. She added that the festival is a time to renew the spirit of gratitude, harmony, and hope for the days ahead, wishing that the season brings peace and blessings to all.

||<><><>||